Shipped Semen
Stallion Service Contract

1. I, hereby agree to breed my mare _____ Reg. No. _____
to Pastels Smart Lena for the 2009 breeding season at $1,000.00, collection and shipping fees are due to CSU at the time of request for semen. All mares must be approved by the stallion owners prior to issuing a contract for stallion service's. Stallion service breed fee checks to be made payable to the stallion owner Love and Coates Performance Horses, Inc., along with a copy of the mare's registration papers and the AQHA members number, must be returned with this contract to Love and Coates Performance Horses, Inc. The fee holds the right of the mare owner to ONE breeding during the 2009 breeding season. Upon request for the first semen shipment the breeding fee must be paid in full. No mare will be bred before the fee has been paid and a complete contract is on file. If additional semen is requested on this contract there will be an additional $150.00 for each collection, plus shipping and must be paid prior to shipping semen.

2. Live foal guaranteed with return privilege the following season by stallion owner only if mare fails to produce a live foal after being veterinarian checked in foal. It is understood that should the foal not stand and nurse, mare owner will be entitled to a return breeding for the next year only. If the mare should fail to become pregnant, lose the pregnancy or the foal dies: mare owner must pay $200.00 to Love and Coates Performance Horses, Inc. and all CSU charges prior to the mare being rebred the next year. If the mare dies or becomes unfit for breeding, the mare owner may return the following year with a substitute mare if approved by the stallion owner.

3. The greatest effort will be made to impregnate the mare. However, if for any reason the mare does not become pregnant, the mare owner will not hold the stallion owner, Colorado State University and/or their representatives liable. It is the responsibility of the mare owner to pregnancy check the mare within 15 days of departing from the breeding facility. Love and Coates Performance Horses must be notified in writing of the mare's current status, if Love and Coates Performance Horses, Inc. is not notified of the mare's status another breed fee will be due prior to the mare's rebreed. The breeding season will begin February 10th and close July 30th.

3. Is this mare to be an embryo transfer? YES NO (circle one)

5. Is this mare to be breed with transported Semen? YES NO (circle One)

6. It is understood that should the above named stallion die, or become unfit for service, this contract shall become null and void and the breed fee will be returned to the mare owner.

7. A Breeder's Certificate will be issued upon notification of the birth of the foal by stallion owner.

8. The mare owner agrees not to assign or transfer this contract without prior consent of the stallion owner and/or Love and Coates Performance Horses.

10. It is agreed that if it should become necessary for the stallion owner and/or Love and Coates Performance Horses to incur costs and expenses to retain the services of any attorney, pay legal fees and/or court costs to enforce this agreement or any portion thereof, I hereby agree to pay reasonable costs and attorney's fees.

12. It is expressly agreed that this contract is performed in Laramie County, Wyoming and venue for any action shall be in Laramie County, Wyoming.
