

SR HALLMARKED

1988 BAY

PROFILE

SR Hallmarked was unable to compete in the 1991 NCHA Futurity due to illness. However, he was a finalist in the 1992 NCHA Derby, finished fourth in the 1993 NCHA Summer Spectacular 5-Year-Old Open, tied for fourth in the 5/6-Year-Old division of the 1993 El Cid Futurity, was Reserve Champion of the 1994 Abilene Western 5/6-Year-Old Open and Co-Reserve Champion of the 1994 Abilene Summer Spectacular 5/6-Year-Old Open. His total lifetime earnings top $64,000.

From very limited colt crops, he is the sire of 61 offspring earning $748,267, averaging $12,267 per offspring.

His leading money earner, with $87,307 in lifetime earnings, is Marked Pattie, out of a daughter of Lani Kai, which was the 2004 NCHA World Champion Mare. She also finished fifth in the year-end Open standings. Buddie Hallmark, a gelding out of a Peppy San Badger mare, was a leading contender in non-pro competition earning over $86,876 in lifetime earnings, and he's still competing. Hallalujah, out of a Freckles Playboy daughter, has lifetime earnings of $84,419 and is now a broodmare in the Buffalo Ranch prestigious broodmare band.

Trainers agree that his offspring are easy to train and show and have lots of cow. He has a good flat bone, a beautiful mabogany bay color, and a beautiful head, with an eye like a deer. And he passes on those beautiful looks and balanced conformation.

His semen ships easy and he has a good semen count. At 18, he is blemish free and sound.

SR is a breeding bargain of the year — $1,000 for the first 20 contracts.
